Dining Options

Share Wolfgang Puck's innovative take on specialties such as Japanese wagyu steak, along with New York's freshest seafood, in a stylish, convivial atmosphere designed by Jacques Garcia. With its own entrance on Church Street, CUT by Wolfgang Puck is among the finest restaurants and bars in Downtown NYC, and the place where New Yorkers and world travellers come to be part of the scene.

Spa Facilities

Escape to the calm of our third floor. The Four Seasons Spa in Downtown NYC offers seven treatment rooms, and one is a VIP couples' suite.

DINING

CUT by Wolfgang Puck

Guest can enjoy breakfast, lunch or dinner in the lively and convivial atmosphere of CUT by Wolfgang Puck. Or, they can sip Manhattans in the bar as they watch the bustling streets of lower Manhattan unfold from the window view. With interiors by cutting-edge French architect and designer, Jacques Garcia, one of Architectural Digest's AD100, CUT by Wolfgang Puck's décor will be as sophisticated as its menu and extensive wine list.

With its own signage and entrance on Church Street alongside the Four Seasons Private Residences at 30 Park Place, CUT by Wolfgang Puck seats 86 for main room dining and 32 seats in the lounge area, which includes 10 seats at the bar. A Private Dining room seats 31 and serves as a perfect enclave for celebrations, social and business gatherings.
