Dear Viking Guest,

I hope this finds you healthy and in positive spirits. If you are like me, you have stayed closer to home this past year—which of course has allowed for more time to dream about your next big trip. I think you will agree we are living in extraordinary times, but I am personally optimistic about the future—and getting back to exploring.

At Viking, it will always be our mission to create meaningful experiences that are destination focused. In fact, I have often said that we offer the “thinking person’s cruise” in contrast to mainstream cruises. As someone who has traveled with Viking, you already know that to be true. It is this dedication that has helped us become the #1 Ocean Cruise Line in Travel + Leisure’s 2020 World’s Best Awards and the #1 River Cruise Line in Condé Nast Traveler’s 2020 Readers’ Choice Awards.

Now, we are building on our history of enriching experiences with the inaugural season of Viking Expeditions. In the following pages, I am pleased to spotlight our new voyages to the ends of the earth and closer to home. Beginning in early 2022, you have an opportunity to sail to the Arctic and Antarctica, as well as North America’s Great Lakes, on new, purpose-built Viking Expedition ships. Hosting just 378 guests in 189 staterooms, these state-of-the-art Polar Class vessels feature public spaces that are familiar to Viking’s ocean cruise guests, as well as new onboard areas and features created specifically to enhance comfortable exploration.

To develop these new voyages, we have partnered with some of the world’s most prestigious scientific institutions—including University of Cambridge’s Scott Polar Research Institute, The Cornell Lab of Ornithology and the National Oceanic and Atmospheric Administration (NOAA)—to make each journey an unparalleled learning experience on board and on shore.

We hope that the enclosed information inspires you—and we invite you to plan now for future exploration. In the meantime, I invite you to join us on Viking.TV, where we host daily livestream video sessions with some of the world’s most fascinating people. Viking.TV is a way for us to continue exploring the world in comfort—from home.

Thank you for being a Viking traveler, and we look forward to once again welcoming you on board.

THE THINKING PERSON'S EXPEDITION

Created for curious, experienced travelers

WE ALL TRAVEL TO EXPLORE, TO LEARN, TO UNDERSTAND. At Viking, we believe travel should be more than just a trip — it should be a gateway to insight and discoveries. We design our itineraries so our guests can explore and engage with the nature, culture, science and history of their destination.

VIKING EXPEDITIONS EXPANDS ON THAT MISSION, journeying to the unexplored wilderness both at the far reaches of the world and in the heart of North America. We have reenvisioned expedition voyages to facilitate exploration and scientific discovery. Even our ship details inform, from our mural of whales to our lifelike felt birds, created to help guests identify and practice photographing the avian species they may encounter.

BEFORE YOU TRAVEL, we provide materials to help you get the most out of your journey, from destination-specific photography advice by professionals to filmographies that inspire wanderlust and recommended reading that enlightens.

ONBOARD ACTIVITIES are designed for the thinking traveler, with daily briefings and world-class lectures. Guests can engage with working scientists in our onboard laboratory or participate in citizen science programs.

ON SHORE, guests can assist in fieldwork or interact through experiential activities. They can help identify migratory patterns, accompany scientists to collect samples or learn from a professional photographer how to capture incredible landscapes.

GUESTS CONNECT with like-minded travelers on board our ships. And by journey's end, our guests should feel more connected — to our Viking Experts, resident scientists, newfound friends and the world.

EXCLUSIVE SCIENTIFIC PARTNERSHIPS

Viking Resident Scientists provide invaluable insight

OUR EXPERIENCED EXPEDITION TEAM is led by Jørn Henriksen, Director of Expedition Operations, who grew up and lived in Arctic Norway for over 45 years and worked there in expedition management for 25 years, and Dr. Damon Stanwell-Smith, a marine biologist with a 27-year career involved with the Antarctic.

OUR VIKING SCIENTIFIC ADVISORY COMMITTEE is chaired by Professor Julian Dowdeswell, Director of the Scott Polar Research Institute, and consists of several leading scientific institutions in atmospheric sciences, botany, glaciology, marine biology and ornithology.

WE ARE HONORED to have legendary polar explorers Liv Arnesen and Ann Bancroft as our ships' godmothers.

OUR LEAD PARTNER is the University of Cambridge's Scott Polar Research Institute, whose scientists will conduct fieldwork and share their expertise with our guests. This is underpinned by a Viking endowment for scientific research of the polar regions.

WE HAVE ALSO PARTNERED with the Cornell Lab of Ornithology. Their ornithologists will collect data for their bird observation database (eBird.com) and interact with guests.

OUR ONBOARD EXPEDITION PROGRAM is designed to prepare guests for their onshore experiences, with over 25 experts accompanying each journey including our Viking Expedition Team and Viking Resident Scientists from our partnerships.

DESIGNED AS WORKING RESEARCH VESSELS, Viking Octantis and Viking Polaris are equipped with well-appointed laboratories and offer guests a unique opportunity to participate in scientific research by assisting in data collection and citizen science programs.

EXPEDITION EXPERIENCES

Shore excursions designed to take you closer

VIKING EXPEDITIONS OFFER A VARIETY OF EXCURSIONS so you can experience your destination in the way that most interests you. Virtually all excursions are included in your cruise fare in order to ensure you maximize your discoveries. Landings and excursions offer incredible views of remote landscapes and remarkable wildlife, and are led by an experienced team of experts highly skilled in operating in rugged and polar environments.

ENJOY INCLUDED EXPERIENCES: hike through the majestic landscape outside Tromsø, Norway, take a zodiac to land on Antarctica and encounter penguins, dive deep to explore under water or marvel at the power of Niagara's Horseshoe Falls. You can also choose from optional excursions such as dogsledding or bald eagle-spotting among red-gold maple trees.

SCIENCE IS AN IMPORTANT ASPECT OF YOUR EXPERIENCE, participate in collaborative science during your excursions with experiential activities or fieldwork, facilitated via landings by zodiac, RIB cruising or submarine journeys. At Viking, we firmly believe it is important for us to support research efforts and new scientific discoveries, and we provide every opportunity for our guests to further their understanding of the world around them.

PERFECTING THE EXPEDITION EXPERIENCE

Exploring the world in comfort

AFTER LEADING THE RIVER CRUISE INDUSTRY for over two decades and reinventing ocean cruising with our small ship experience, we are taking our destination-focused journeys to the far reaches of the globe. Many expedition ships are refurbished survey vessels or smaller, older cruise ships with limited amenities, small windows and limited public areas. The belief was that if you wanted to explore these places, you had to do it in relative discomfort. But at Viking, we have a different perspective — you can explore in comfort. We have applied our years of expertise to create the perfect expedition experience. The result is two new, purpose-built ships optimally sized for expeditions: small enough to navigate remote areas, yet large enough to provide speed, superior handling and stability in the roughest seas. Our vessels merge comfort and exploration in an unprecedented way. This optimized size also facilitates enhanced enrichment activities by carrying a fleet of zodiacs, RIBs, kayaks and submarines, and providing outstanding venues for onboard lectures and learning.

A NEW STANDARD FOR EXPEDITIONS: SHIPS LIKE NO OTHER. Marvels of technology, our expedition ships have a dynamic positioning mode, enabling a “hover in place” when anchoring is difficult or prohibited. This preserves sensitive wildlife habitats on the sea floor and also provides guests with safer, more comfortable excursion craft embarkation. Additionally, our vessels feature both conventional fin stabilizers that reduce rolling while sailing, and a U-tank stabilizer that can significantly decrease rolling by about 50% when the ships are stationary. The Hangar — a unique in-ship marina complete with a slipway — provides guests with smooth RIB launches from inside the ship, sheltered from the wind and waves.

BUILT FOR EXPLORATION IN SENSITIVE ENVIRONMENTS, our ships meet the most stringent standards. We designed the vessels with a suite of sensors to collect oceanographic data, our operations are fully compliant with all polar organization guidelines, and we employ state-of-the-art biosecurity.

EVERYWHERE, A FOCUS ON PANORAMIC VIEWS. State-of-the-art technology is just one benefit of our outstanding vessels: with more indoor and outdoor viewing areas than other expedition vessels, guests are as close as possible to the most majestic scenery on Earth. We located public spaces on the upper decks, furnishing them with floor-to-ceiling windows for optimal viewing. Our unique panoramic auditorium at sea, The Aula, offers stunning 270° views. And of course, even guests’ private retreats are designed to maximize observation opportunities, from our industry-leading Nordic Balcony staterooms to Explorer Suites with verandas and gardens, and an Owner’s Suite complete with a private veranda, sauna, terrace and badestamp, a Norwegian hot tub.

THE NORDIC SPA

SAIL IN SCANDINAVIAN STYLE

Innovative, light-filled spaces where comfort meets discovery

WE PUT GREAT EFFORT INTO ENVISIONING WHAT AN EXPEDITION SHOULD BE.

The result is a distinctly Viking experience from the moment you set foot on board. Our expedition ships are customized to navigate the planet's most remote environments but offer the same comfort as our ocean and river ships. Slip into the easy elegance of Nordic furnishings, refined finishes and panoramic views from any spot on the ship.

OPEN AND SERENE SCANDINAVIAN SPACES greet you throughout. Settle into the Aquavit Bar for an afternoon Irish coffee or stop by The Living Room to listen to a classical trio or soothing piano sonata. Recharge in the Sauna or work out in our Fitness Center. Perhaps enjoy a Nordic bathing ritual with an invigorating hot and cold experience moving from our Snow Grotto into a badestamp, a traditional wood-sided hot tub.

EVERY ROOM IS A VIEWING ROOM with floor-to-ceiling windows found throughout the ship. Imagine relaxing in The Nordic Spa, lounging by the outdoor lava rock firepit or curling up in the comfort of your own stateroom, all with breathtaking vistas. These ships are the ideal place to take in the unique beauty of your destination.

THE AULA

The world's first panoramic al fresco auditorium at sea

SETTING A NEW STANDARD YET AGAIN, Viking has created the world's most advanced venue for learning at sea. The Aula, a stunning panoramic auditorium, was inspired by the University of Oslo's famed Aula ceremonial hall, which used to be the venue for the Nobel Peace Prize ceremony. This unique space on our expedition ships features an 8K laser-projected panoramic screen spanning nearly the entire width of the room, and is used for lectures, daily briefings, science presentations and films. Two decks high and seating 190, The Aula can accommodate half the ship's guests at a time. Raked seating ensures optimal views from every location, and plentiful Marius-weave blankets provide comfort. But The Aula is so much more, because the panoramic screen retracts, cantilevering up into the ceiling and exposing a wall of windows.

A 270° VIEW SURROUNDS GUESTS IN THIS INCREDIBLE VENUE. With floor-to-ceiling glass on three sides of the auditorium, nature takes center stage. In addition, the large bottom windows of the stage wall slide open, providing al fresco access to the adjacent Finse Terrace and creating a magnificent indoor-outdoor experience, immersed in nature. Envision a Viking Resident Scientist lecturing on cephalopods while guests catch a glimpse of breaching humpbacks; or relaxing by the heated lava rock "firepits" on the Finse Terrace with a Viking ornithologist, discussing a bald eagle overhead. Lectures can even be presented with the windows unencumbered by the panoramic screen — with a smaller, pop-up screen for lecturers to enhance guests' understanding of the natural world unfolding around them.

THE HANGAR & LABORATORY

A unique in-ship marina and working scientific laboratory

AN INDUSTRY FIRST, THE HANGAR BRINGS TRUE COMFORT TO EXPEDITION CRUISING. This enclosed, in-ship marina permits the launch of small excursion craft through the ship's shell doors. The Hangar's most innovative feature is the slipway that allows guests to embark on RIBs shielded from wind and waves from a stable surface inside the ship, and once on board, to glide into the water. On return, guests enter via The Hangar in their RIB before disembarking. Guests can observe The Hangar from the windows above, witnessing small boat launches, maintenance and biosecurity protocols. There is also a FerryBox, a set of instruments continuously collecting and displaying data on water quality, oxygen content, plankton composition and more.

A RESEARCH LAB STAFFED BY VIKING RESIDENT SCIENTISTS. In addition to its small craft launch capabilities, The Hangar also provides a learning opportunity with its well-appointed laboratory. Developed in consultation with Cambridge University and other academic partners, it supports a range of research activities and is equipped with wet and dry laboratory facilities, a sample-processing area, fume cupboard, freezer/cool storage, comprehensive microscope optics and space for analysis-specific instruments. Guests receive supervised laboratory access to learn from and participate with scientists undertaking primary research, an experience unique to Viking. Field samples collected during excursions, submarine dives and landings will be analyzed, interpreted and discussed with guests, providing stimulating engagement and unique insight into how data is collected in remote locations to inform global conservation decisions.

NORDIC BALCONY™

Floor-to-ceiling, distortion-free glass at the very edge of the ship lets you take the views in while keeping the elements out. No veranda impeding your view, no intrusion to your elegant living space, no detail overlooked in our quest to connect you more closely with the places you seek to explore.

And should you wish to feel even closer to nature, the top of your panoramic glass lowers to transform your stateroom into a sheltered al fresco lookout, with an observation shelf at elbow level to stabilize binoculars or photograph the majestic wilderness as you glide by. ICEBERG, ANTARCTIC PENINSULA

ANTARCTICA

SEEING ANTARCTICA FOR THE FIRST TIME will steal your breath away. Few places on Earth are this vast and otherworldly, with raw, sculpted landscapes awash in blue and white. This is nature at its most flawless—an experience sure to transform you.

THE IDEAL TIME TO EXPLORE IS THE ANTARCTIC SUMMER which starts in November, when the cold, windy weather turns to 24-hour sunlight and temperatures rise to a comfortable 32° Fahrenheit. In this season the ice melts, unlocking seaways that were frozen in winter. This is the optimal time to visit, often with relatively open water, clear weather and endless views.

ANTARCTIC ACTIVITIES range from relaxing to active. Zodiac excursions and shore landings give you unparalleled opportunities to view and photograph wildlife at sea and on shore, while optional excursions offer cross-country skiing, snowshoeing or overnight camping and take you into seldom seen parts of the peninsula. Participating in ongoing scientific research with our Viking Resident Scientists will get you closer to your destination.

AS MEMBERS OF IAATO, we abide by all their regulations to ensure safe, responsible visits to Antarctica.

THE WILDLIFE OF ANTARCTICA

Watch the drama of life unfold

ANIMALS BUSTLE AND THRIVE under the midnight sun, as native penguin and seal species compress the cycle of life into a short season, and migratory birds and whales take advantage of the ocean's rich bounty. Each day affords a new opportunity to witness nature at work. Learn more about the flora and fauna of Antarctica at viking.com/expeditionvideos.

GENTOO PENGUINS

The world's fastest diving bird, Gentoo penguins can dive at speeds greater than 20 miles per hour during their hunt for krill, squid and fish.

ADÉLIE PENGUINS

Spending summers on the islands of Antarctica and the rest of the year on the continent, Adélie penguins dive as far as 600 feet under water in search of food.

OTHER PENGUINS

You may see other species, including distinctively marked chinstraps, kings and the less common emperors, largest of all the penguins.

WHALES

Plentiful fish, squid, krill and plankton beckon minke whales, humpbacks and blue whales, while orca pods feast on seals.

SEALS

Among Antarctica's population are doe-eyed Weddell seals, fierce leopard seals, fur seals and deep-diving elephant seals.

MIGRATORY BIRDS

Abundant food makes the Antarctic peninsula a summer home for Antarctic terns, shags, various albatross and petrels.

ARCTIC GLACIERS, SVALBARD

THE ARCTIC

EXPERIENCE THE STARK BEAUTY of the polar north. With over half the land covered by glaciers and sea ice extending from the North Pole to the surrounding continents, the Arctic may appear too harsh for life to exist. Yet within this remote ice-sculpted landscape lies a thriving ecosystem, fueled by months of a never-setting sun.

DISCOVER THE NORTH OF LEGENDS in Svalbard, an archipelago located only 650 miles from the North Pole and accessible thanks to a branch of the warm Gulf Stream. While much of the Arctic remains trapped in ice year-round, Svalbard offers navigable seas and relatively warm weather in summer. Along Svalbard's fjords, visit the world's northernmost city along with remnants of the whaling and coal mining industries.

NEXT, JOURNEY NEAR THE TOP OF THE WORLD where the horizon is interrupted only by passing ice and rocky isles rising from the sea. Travel by zodiac through Arctic waters and you may come face-to-face with a giant walrus. Or witness white beluga whales busily feeding. On shore, spot an arctic fox, Svalbard reindeer — or even the king himself, the majestic polar bear — moving across shifting sea ice.

AN ADVENTURE FOR THE MIND AS WELL. Fill your days with extraordinary activities. You might collect ice samples for research on board your vessel. Or wake to a gorgeous polar sunrise on an optional overnight camping excursion. Observe whale movements by RIB or explore aquatic wildlife by submarine. You can even experience a polar rite of passage: a plunge into the icy water.

AS MEMBERS OF AECO, we abide by all their regulations to ensure safe, responsible visits to the Arctic.

THE WILDLIFE OF SVALBARD & THE ARCTIC

Explore an ecosystem adapted to extreme cold

THE WILDLIFE OF THE ARCTIC. Encounter some of nature's most elusive wildlife north of the Arctic Circle. Located halfway between Norway and the North Pole, Svalbard is one of the most remote regions on Earth, offering a nearly untouched wilderness with native and migratory animals uniquely adapted to life in the extreme cold. Learn more about the flora and fauna of the Arctic at viking.com/expeditionvideos.

POLAR BEARS

Apex predators and proficient swimmers, as many as 3,000 polar bears live on Svalbard, where seals — their main food source — abound.

WALRUSES

Strong tusks help walruses climb onto and break ice, while sensitive whiskers enable them to locate food on the ocean floor.

WHALES

After centuries of hunting, whale populations have recovered around Svalbard and include beluga, minke and white whales as well as tusked narwhals.

SVALBARD REINDEER

This Svalbard native is shorter and stouter than other reindeer, with a thick coat that changes from summer-brown to winter-white.

ARCTIC FOX

With short extremities and a thick coat to withstand extreme cold, the arctic fox can scavenge polar bear prey when food is scarce.

RINGED SEALS

Among the smallest pinnipeds, ringed seals have claws so strong they can scrape breathing holes through ice over four feet thick.

GREAT LAKES SCENERY

THE GREAT LAKES

THE LARGEST FRESHWATER ECOSYSTEM ON EARTH, over 750 miles across and with 10,000 miles of coastline, America’s Great Lakes are a wonderland of diverse natural environments, iconic wildlife and some of the most fascinating cities in North America.

EMBARK ON AN ADVENTURE IN THIS UNDER-EXPLORED REGION. Visit world-famous Niagara Falls — actually a group of three falls — and hear the majestic roar that has been immortalized in countless poems and literature. Or explore Sleeping Bear Dunes Lakeshore, a tranquil park featuring immense sand dunes for climbing, forest trails for hiking, as well as bird-watching and wildlife viewing. At the same time, city sophistication is never too far away. Toronto, Canada’s largest and most diverse city, is renowned for its multicultural dining experiences, theater, art galleries and museums, while Chicago, one of America’s great cities, is a melting pot of arts and culture, great restaurants and an unforgettable skyline.

THIS IS A LAND THAT BEGS FOR EXPLORATION — whether by kayak gliding silently past industrious otters or pink Precambrian rock islands — or by a visit to one of Canada’s most prominent museums to marvel at paintings inspired by these shores.

THE WILDLIFE OF THE GREAT LAKES

Discover the abundant animals who call this region “home”

THE GREAT LAKES ARE AN IDEAL ANIMAL HABITAT with vast swaths of protected shoreline and an array of natural parks and wilderness areas. Here, a diverse ecosystem exists surrounded by spruce, fir, pine and maple forests, with steep granite cliffs and flat coastal wetlands.

MOOSE

The largest of all deer species, moose can stand 6 feet tall from hoof to shoulder, with massive antlers that span up to 6 feet wide.

BALD EAGLES

With vision far more acute than a human’s, these raptors — named for their white heads and necks — feast mostly on fish and carrion.

GRAY WOLVES

Predatory pack animals and the largest members of the dog family, wolves were hunted to near extinction in the lower 48 states.

BLACK BEARS

The most common bear in North America, these solitary forest dwellers range in color from black and brown to cinnamon and even white.

BEAVERS

These ingenious builders dam streams with timber, mud and stones to slow the water’s flow and construct lodges in the resulting ponds.

OTHER BIRDS

With habitats ranging from forests to wetlands, the Great Lakes are home to a variety of birds, including the piping plover, wood thrush and woodpecker.
