Taj Mahal, Agra

ONCE-IN-A-LIFETIME EXPERIENCES

India's Golden Triangle

The "Golden Triangle" is India's hottest tourist destination. Why? The three points of the triangle—Delhi, Agra, and Jaipur—contain several sites of outstanding cultural significance, some of the world's most beautiful hotels, and a wealth of opportunities to immerse yourself in India's city culture.

NEW DELHI

Explore India's sprawling capital city like a true local as you step aboard a rickshaw to ride into Old Delhi. Once the capital of the Mughal Empire for centuries, the city hosts spectacular examples of Mughal architecture, including Humayun's Tomb, a UNESCO World Heritage Site. Take in the passing sights before spending some free time exploring the city on your own.

AGRA

The city of Agra is home to arguably the world's most famous landmark, the remarkable Taj Mahal. Over two days you will have the opportunity to experience it once at sunset and again the next morning during sunrise, without the usual crowds.

JAIPUR

The pink city of Jaipur is filled with magical surprises. Highlights of your visit here include two UNESCO World Heritage Sites, the Amber Palace and Jantar Mantar, an intriguing 17th-century architectural project dedicated to astronomy.

Maharaja Suite

CRUISING THE GANGES

A unique voyage through rural India

One of the world's most sacred bodies of water, the Ganges River flows through a myriad of small villages and highly populated cities throughout India and Bangladesh. Take in the remarkable scenery as you sail and be on the lookout for a rare sighting of the endangered Ganges River dolphin.

KOLKATA

Visit a captivatingly colorful flower market and stroll through a potters' neighborhood to learn about a traditional craft. Then choose to stop at either Mother Teresa's home or a local NGO.

KALNA

India's "Temple City" is best known for the magnificent Hindu temples built by the maharajas of Bardhaman. For the best view, glide through the city on a pedal-powered three-wheeled rickshaw, known locally as a trishaw.

EXPERIENCE RURAL LIFE

Set sail on one of the world's most sacred bodies of water as you sail through a myriad of small villages dotted along the river. Here you will experience the true local life not many travelers get to see.
